At the skating rink, on the slide, or during the drive you will thoroughly enjoy

Fry's Milk Chocolate

—one of the most delicious dainties with which you could treat yourself or your friends. In 5c. and 10c. cakes. Some folks think Fry's Nut Milk Chocolate is even nicer. It is a delightful combination of the milk chocolate with carefully selected nuts. Try it once and you'll want it often. Most good stores sell Fry's dainties. See that the name "Fry" is on the wrapper.

Motoring these brisk wintry days no longer "gives the shivers" to those who have learned the splendid warming-up effect of a piping-hot drink of Fry's Cocoa. A spin through the sharp, chilling wintry air is enjoyed only by warm-blooded folks—those who drink lots of Fry's Cocoa. Drink more Fry's and chills, draughts and "Jack Frost" will lose their terrors for you. Fry's Cocoa creates warmth by enriching the blood and nourishing the body. It is the one wholly beneficial drink which everybody likes. You cannot drink it too often.

Sliding, gliding, skating, driving—whizzing through the crisp, fresh air, warmed "all through" with steaming-hot Fry's Cocoa and the vigorous exercise—what more wonderful combination for making warm, healthy blood, supple muscles and an altogether strong, vigorous, storm-proof body? There's no need to feel timid about attempting outdoor sport on the coldest days if you warm-up before and after with a delicious, nourishing, warmth-giving drink of

Yvette Guilbert, the French actress, found that one word may have so considerable difficulty in learning many meanings that for a long time she was puzzled and baffled. One day a friend asked her if she did not find a certain actor very "rough," and she replied:

"Yes. Still he says that he shaves every day."—Ladies Home Journal.

WOULD GET OUT QUICK

A member of a certain school board was a crank on the subject of fires, and when visiting a school invariably limited his remarks to asking the pupils what they would do if the building caught fire. Knowing his little peculiarity, the teacher coached his pupils as to the answer they should give. This was the result. A government inspector made his usual official visit. "You boys have listened so attentively to your master's remarks," he said, "that I wonder what you would do if I were to make you a little speech?"

To the consternation of the master, a hundred voices shouted in unison, "Form in line and march downstairs!"—Till-Bits.

It is especially efficacious for over-irritated eczema in all its various forms, ring worm, scurf, pimples, blotches insect bites, tetter, certain forms of ulcers, sores and wounds. It is strongly antiseptic, cleansing, soothing and healing. It stops all itching and burning caused by skin eruptions.

We are so positive this ointment is unequalled that we offer it with the distinct understanding that if after having given it a reasonable trial, you have only got to tell us and we will be not satisfied with the results, you without quibbling, return every cent paid us for it. We exact no promises or obligations whatever.

We want you to try this Eczema Ointment. REAL ESTATE MAN CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY.

"Initial that, and put it in right now," was his demand.

It was during the course of cross-examination that Mr. Parlee asked a witness who had purchased lots of the accused, and who had subsequently heard that there was something wrong about the real estate transaction, that Mr. Parlee inquired whether the witness had sought to obtain information about his lots when he learned that there might be difficulties as to title. Witness did not remember whether he had inquired about the matter or no. Mr. Parlee repeated the question and the magistrate intervened.

"The witness had already answered that question," said Mr. Turnbull. Then occurred the sensational passage in which Mr. Parlee declared that his client was not receiving the compensation which he was entitled from the court.

Charged with Conspiracy.

Before the examination of witnesses commenced Mr. McCaffery asked the permission of the court to change the charge against Barrie from one of false pretenses to one of conspiracy to defraud. It was on the strength of the charge of false pretenses that the extradition proceedings were instituted against Barrie, and had been extradited from the States, no charge could have been made. Barrie, however, had these extradition proceedings, and on this ground Mr. McCaffery contended that a change in the charge must be allowed. The magistrate occurred, Mr. Parlee objecting. It was to face a charge of false pretenses, he said, that his client consented to waive extradition proceedings, but Mr. Turnbull did not uphold his objection.

In the police court yesterday afternoon, the various charges of false pretenses were accordingly withdrawn, and Barrie is being tried as a party to a conspiracy to defraud, the complainant being W. J. Moore, who purchased real estate through Mr. Barrie's agency.

The hearing of the difficulties which have led to the present court proceedings, was prior to 1908. Mason and Finn purchased property in New Nelson from Ferris and Graves. In 1908 Ferris and Graves brought action to cancel the agreement and succeeded. Barrie, who had been a large sum. The property was sold by Barrie to various parties, the accused acting as agent for Finn and Mason. It is now alleged that Finn and Mason cannot make title to the property, and further alleged that a conspiracy to defraud was framed up between Finn and Barrie, selling property knowing that title could not be given. Barrie contends that he acted only as an agent and that as soon as he discovered that Finn owed so large a sum as he did he is stated to have done, he refused to sell any more of the New Nelson lots. The last sale was in January, 1909. In October, 1910, Barrie went to Los Angeles, intending, it is stated, to come back to Edmonton in April. He was arrested in Los Angeles on the false pretenses charge, and while extradition proceedings were pending, he decided to waive the proceedings.

Witnesses on the stand yesterday were brought on summons by the prosecuting counsel. They were Dr. Collins, Peter Ecker, Thos. Norton, Fred Duncan, and Chester Lee. There was little variation in the evidence given. Each witness stated that he had been informed on making purchase of New Nelson property that there would be no difficulty in securing title. Dr. Collins stated on the stand that he had received a letter from a lawyer of the name of John Barry, of St. John, N.B., stating that the agreement of sale had been assigned to him. Witness had been struck by the close resemblance between the writer's name and that of Barrie.

The hearing will be continued on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30. Barrie was released on bail of $1,000, by himself, and two sureties of $1,000 each by Colin Beals and John A. Johnson.

THE REGULATIONS
FOR DEVELOPING
ATHABASCA POWER

If the regulations which the Minister of the Interior asks the city of Edmonton to comply with are the regulations which will be enforced against every power enterprise in the country, whether publicly or privately owned, there can be no fault found with the regulations.

The theory that no person or body of persons should be allowed to become possessed of any part of the natural resources without taking action to immediately develop them is so sound as to need no argument, and the one creditable feature about the timber regulations, the coal regulations, the oil regulations and the coal regulations under the Oliver regime is that they are worded to intend that such shall be the policy.

If the conditions upon which the city of Edmonton is offered power on the Athabasca may be taken as a criterion of what the policy of the department is to be with regard to all water powers in Alberta, then there can be no fault found with the treatment which the city of Edmonton has received.

But if the Minister of the Interior has given different treatment to any other company or if in future he offers better terms for power sites on the Athabasca or any other stream, then the city has a grievance against the Minister of the Interior which cannot be explained away.

The power resources, being the property of the whole people, it is when a municipality asks the right to develop any part of these resources for the common good that the best terms should be offered.

EDMONTON AT THE DOORWAY OF
THE NEW EMPIRE

The first arrivals have reached the city and the immigration year of 1911 is just opening up.

This is the year for which Edmonton has been waiting since ever there was a white man in the whole of the west.

The settlement of the prairie region, which commenced in the Mississippi valley nearly three quarters of a century ago, has been pressing steadily toward the north and west ever since, closing up behind it access to free land and establishing a civilization as it advanced.

Last year the main front of the line of settlement had reached the Saskatchewan. To the east and south there is practically no more free land. To the north and west there is nothing but free land. Edmonton sits at the doorway of the next new empire in the line of march, the last best west.

Commencing with this month of this year Edmonton becomes the hub and centre of the greatest drama of development that the world has ever known.

A RAILROAD
WITH TOO MUCH
READY MONEY

In its programme for 1911 the Canadian Pacific Railway company proposes to spend $32,000,000 in betterments on its western lines.

This enormous amount is being taken from earnings and not from an issue of bonds, as is the usual system of railroading.

The amount which the Canadian Pacific is compelled to spend on betterments each year in order to keep its dividend below the ten per cent. figure, which would place the control of rates in the hands of the Dominion government, grows from year to year and with each succeeding new high water mark in earnings the road is placed more than ever in the position of having more money than it knows what to do with.

The inevitable outcome must be, of course, a sweeping reduction of rates, but the great wonder is that with other roads building into its territory that the Canadian Pacific does not now reduce the rates to a place where railroad building for its rivals would be unprofitable.

SLIGHT INDEFINITENESS ABOUT STANDING OF CONSERVATIVE PARTY

By a unanimous vote the legislature of Saskatchewan has resolved that reciprocity is good, one of the most ardent supporters of the resolution being F. W. G. Haultain, leader of the opposition.

While it is pleasing to note that Haultain sees the advantages of free trade with United States, his attitude in favor of the resolution will add to the perplexity in the public mind.

If some two sections of the Conservative party would come to the same conclusion at the same time as some other sections it would make it easier to discover on which side of the question the party stood. But where McBride in British Columbia sees ruination to the whole of Canada in the pact, and Robin and Rogers carry through an anti-reciprocity resolution in Manitoba, while at the same time Haultain is speaking in favor of it at Regina, the man in the street may be excused if he is slightly mixed as to just where the Conservative party does stand.

JUST PARAGRAPHS

Pitcher Jess Baker of the White Sox says his best fooler this year is the fog ball. Jess probably means exclusive of the highball.

If those machinery men who are waiting around for an order intend to stay until the city council and Commissioner Bouillon come to some amicable arrangement about who is to buy the new plant they might cut down their board bill by taking up a home-stand or establishing a home in Parkdale.

Midnight Trains March 20th.

One week from next Monday, on the morning of March 20th the popular midnight train will once again put in an appearance here from Calgary. Superintendent C. S. Maharg spent the greater part of yesterday in Strathcona and informed the newspaper representative that the midnight service will be resumed on the 20th. At the outset the service will be made a tri-weekly as formerly but Mr. Maharg expects that it will be extended into a daily possibly in June.

Regarding the opening of a daily through train service on the new C.P.R. trunk line from Strathcona to Winnipeg, Mr. Maharg gave it as his opinion that these passengers will not commence their runs until the new spring time and comes into effect at the date of which is uncertain, depending generally upon climatic and local conditions.

Mr. Maharg came north in his private car merely on an inspection trip.

Centata A Brilliant Success.

A large crowd packed the Baptist church last evening and were rewarded with a musical programme of exceptional merit in the rendering of the great cantata "The New Jerusalem," by a company of local talent under the direction of John A. Bell. Weeks have been spent in preparation by the company for the event and the rendering of all the numbers showed a high state of perfection. The soloists of the evening were: soprano, Miss Alice Pinckston; contralto, Miss Constance Buck; tenor, Mr. D. Brown; bass, Mr. Burgess. Mr. Bell was conductor, and Mr. Alan Harner accompanist. Part I of the programme was as follows:

Quartet—Ave Verum, Miss Harner, Mrs. Burgess, Mr. Brown, Mr. Burgess.

Solo—The Good Shepherd, Miss Alice Pinckston.

Solo—If with all your hearts, Mr. Brown.

Solo: Return, Oh God, Miss Buck.

Solo—But the Lord is mindful of His own, Mr. Burgess.

Part 2 of the programme comprised the long and beautiful cantata, "The New Jerusalem."

The assembly hall of the Collegiate was the scene last night of another highly successful function organized by the University students.

The occasion was the reception to Alberta College a special car brought over one hundred of north side scholars at eight o'clock in the evening. A capital programme was carried out and the other entertainments comprised a splendid supper supplied by the local students.

Most Peculiar Storm in Years.

Old timers in the city assert that yesterday's startling change in weather conditions, from a summer-like prospect at noon to a stormy blizzard by 1 p. m., was perhaps the swiftest change they have ever witnessed in the province. In the city the high wind so far as can be learned did no damage but it was thought for a time that serious mishaps might follow in the path of the storm. The bright and sunshiny of a short two hours later was little less a surprise than the sudden breaking of the storm.

Prince Luitpold has led an active and eventful life ever since 1855, when he began his active service in the army as captain of artillery. In the war of 1866 he assumed the command of the Bavarian troops after the death of General von Zeller, and offered a most gallant resistance to the Prussians in the disastrous battle of Helmstadt, where his eldest son, Prince Louis, was dangerously wounded before his very eyes. Four years later Luitpold was again on the battlefield, this time not against the Prussians but with them, taking part in the invasion of France. He fought bravely and with distinction and was decorated for his eminent services with the first class of the Iron Cross.

It was Luitpold who overcame the hesitation of his eccentric nephew Louis, and induced him to invite King William of Prussia to assume the crown and title of German Emperor. Luitpold was chosen by the various rulers of the German states to submit the crown and title of German Emperor, and ever since that time Luitpold has never wavered in his loyalty to the German Empire. Although extremely unpopular in Bavaria at the beginning of his official reign, because he was believed to be a tool of Prussia and in some way connected with intrigues which were supposed to have driven King Louis II. to his death, Prince Luitpold is now the idol of the people and no ruler of the present time is more loved by the people of his country than he is.

By his marriage to Archduchess Augusta of Austria, who died nearly fifty years ago, Prince Luitpold has a large family of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His eldest son, Prince Louis, is a famous entomologist, and several other of his children and grandchildren have shown remarkable literary ability.

A FAIRY TALE OE REAL LIFE

Girl Who Sang Carols in Streets to Become One of the World's Great Vocalists

London, Mar. 10.—The story of a little singer shortly to be introduced to the public as a "prodigy" is one of those romances of everyday life that sound like a fairy tale.

The heroine is a sweet little miss of thirteen summers, and Miss Amy Sherwin, the well-known voice trainer, of Becon street, herself a former prima donna of note, is the good fairy. One Christmas night carol singers visited a home at Hampstead. Here Miss Sherwin resided, and her delight at hearing a voice of such purity and quality as the little girl's in such surroundings inspired the good fairy to make enquiries, and eventually to adopt the child singer. Now she has been given the professional name of Stella Carol, in memory of so wonderful a voice.

"It was really a romantic meeting," says Miss Sherwin, "quite in the approved fairy-book style. I had just returned from my salary to my home in Hampstead—very weary after a hard day with my pupils. Suddenly, outside my window, the voices of two little girls rose in a Christmas carol. I was annoyed at the disturbance, but gradually my annoyance gave way to surprise and wonder.

"Both the little girls had very sweet voices, and when one of them sang top A and produced a note of perfect purity I went to the door to find out what manner of children they might be. I brought them into my drawing-room and learnt their story. They were two little sisters from Holloway—two of a family of twelve—trying to get some money to buy their mother a surprise present for Christmas.

"They sang again—one of them holding a half-eaten apple—and I was so impressed by the natural beauty of the voices that I determined to take the elder one and train her for the singing profession.

I sent them home at once with instructions not to sing in the open air any more, and next day saw their mother.

"Now Miss Stella Carol is living with me. I have practically adopted her, and have taken complete charge of her education. She has her own bedroom, and a maid to look after her. She will also have a governess to teach her languages, and to take charge of her during afternoon walks.

"Already her upper notes are improving. She can sing one D and E flat with perfect purity. She has a winsome and modest little face, and I have every hope that at her debut, within the next three months, she will

WIFE DESERTERS GET BREAD AND WATER

Stiff Sentences Are Being Handed Out By the High Courts of Wisconsin

Madison, Wis., Mar. 9.—Woe unto the wife desertor or the man who refuses or neglects to support his family, if a bill introduced by Senator Linley, is passed. This bill provides for imprisonment of such offenders in the county jails, on a diet of bread and water, but the author of the measure has tempered justice with mercy and would allow the prisoner either butter or molasses with his staff of life.

Tolerance, however, is barred, and as a further measure of prevention against a kind-hearted sheriff or pauper constraining the law too liberally it is set forth that in case he allows any prisoner and different menu than is specifically provided he shall be fined $5 a day for every day he feeds such a prisoner thus liberally or "sneaks him a clear pipe or chew."

Another "freak" bill dug up to-day by inquisitive newspaper men with nothing else to do is one by Senator Treadwell, which prohibits railroad lunchrooms from charging the public more than 10 cents for a meal.

This bill aims at a class which prevails in practically all railroad "hashhouses" and is likely to receive the support of the legislature.

Remission of the $1.50 poll tax if a qualified elector exercises his privilege of voting is proposed in a bill by Senator Hossard. The supervision of assessments of each county is vested with the power and required to collect the tax from all who do not vote, and the bill further provides, that in case he plays favorite and overlooks anybody he will have to pay each such tax himself.

Senator Lehr has a bill which holds owners of autos responsible for accidents, even though their machines have been borrowed and driven by some one else.

TO VISIT TEXAS CITIES

Houston, Texas, March 11.—Col. Cecil Lyon, a leader of the Republican party in Texas, has completed the arrangements for the visit of Col. Theodore Roosevelt to Texas during the first half of the coming week. The Roosevelt itinerary in Texas will include brief visits in Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth and El Paso. In Austin he will deliver an address before the Texas legislature.

DONATIONS FOR QUEEN MARY'S GIFTS

Marie. The committee is as follows: Mrs. J. D. McCutcheon, 901 Fourth Avenue West, Calgary; Mrs. Barnes, 465 Fifteenth Street, Edmonton; Mrs. J. D. Hyndman, 186 Seventh Street, Edmonton; Mrs. Hislop, 514 Fourth Street, Edmonton; Mrs. Edwards, First Avenue North, Strathcona; Mrs. Dale, 138 Bellamy Street, Edmonton. Contributions may be sent to any of this committee or to Mrs. Bulvey direct at Government House, Edmonton, not later than April 14.

Although, for the sake of avoiding confusion, the committee is limited to representatives of the Daughters of the Empire, other organized societies of women, such as the Women's Canadian Club, the Local Councils of Women, the W. G. T. U., Women's Press Club, and other similar groups, are asked to interest themselves in collecting contributions and to forward them promptly, either to Mrs. Bulvey, or some member of the committee in order that the entire gift from Alberta may be sent to Lady Grey by Mrs. Bulvey not later than April 14.

This contribution will be sent as a single sum together with a list of the contributors, but the amount given by each individual will not be stated. This tactful plan will enable every Mary in the Empire to contribute without embarrassment.

The choice of the gift will be left to her Majesty, but the entire amount of the contributions together with a complete list of the contributors will be presented to the Queen at the time of the coronation.

The Alberta list of contributions is headed by Mrs. Sifton, the wife of the Premier; and others bearing the royal name have already subscribed. In more than one instance mothers are sending contributions for their little daughters who are named for the Queen.

Copies of this notice will be sent not only to all the newspapers of the province and translated into the various languages which will bring it to the notice of our newly made citizens, but it will be sent to each of the thousand schools in Alberta, so that the children may have their share in this loyal tribute, this gift so unique that it cannot fail to appeal to all those fortunate ones who are namesakes of her Majesty.

Will teachers please take charge of contributions from their schools?

Edmonton and Calgary, whose teams are among the contenders for the big prize, will begin shooting early next week.

Los Angeles has a delegation on the grounds to capture the 1912 meeting following the street parade, the tournament was formally opened by Frank M. (Dope) Smith, vice-president of the Spokane Bowling Tournament Association, who scored single with the enormous gilded ball composed of seventy-two pieces. Smith was game and the match will take place tomorrow night.

The Traders' National Bank team pulled 918 in the opening game against the Spokane and Eastern Trust Company, 2180.

ORGANIZE HUEL LEAGUE AT YALE THIS AFTERNOON

There Will be no Less Than Six Clubs in Organization While Ten Are Seeking Admittance—George Sutter will Captain Team at Queen's Hotel, Manager Kidney Directing Things from the Bench

The Hotel Baseball League will be organized at a meeting to be held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock at the Yale Hotel. At this assemblage there will be representatives from the King Edward, the Royal George, The Alberta, The Yale, The Castle, the Penderis, The Queen's, The Windsor, The Cecil and most likely two or three others. Several hotels have announced they would have delegates on hand so that they will get in it is decided to make the league eight, ten or more clubs.

Harry Kidney, late of the Clarendon Hotel at Winnipeg and now manager of the Queen's, is some baseball enthusiast and he has appointed George Sutter to captain his bunch for the coming season and both will be on hand at the meeting this afternoon. Sutter figured on the champion Alberta ball team and is said to be some catcher. C. L. Howland, late of Des Moines, Iowa, and said to be a pitcher of class, will be on the mole for the Queen's organization.

At the meeting this afternoon all details will be settled upon with the exception of the opening of the playing season. This feature will be made known as soon as President Eckstrom, of the Western Canada League, has made known his schedule for the Western Canada.

DEFENDERS TAKE FIRST BIG MATCH

DEACONS HAVE NO TROUBLE IN DEFEATING VARSITY FOR BRACKMAN-KER TROPHY

From the face off, there was never a doubt of the opening game of the Brackman-Ker cup series at the Thistle rink last night, the Deacons playing rings around the Varsity challengers and winning by eight to three. The Deacons worked beautifully throughout and their combination told forcibly against the individual work of Varsity.

The Varsity boys seemed to throw caution to the winds last night in an effort to make individual brilliancy and this told in the one-sided final score. On the other hand, the Deacons seemed to be at their very best and full of pep from the jump.

SPORTING COMMENT

Accidents are seldom heard of in the great game of curling, and it is this fact which helps to make it popular. However, a most regrettable accident which has caused a gloom over the latter part of the season for the Lachine curlers is reported from Montreal, where Miss Henry, a prominent member of the Ladies' Club, fell and severely injured her head. Miss Henry was skipping a rink at the time, and was absorbed in the game. She fell over a stone back and struck the back of her head with considerable force on the ice. Immediate assistance was procured, and the unfortunate lady was removed to her home, where a medical examination revealed the fact that she had sustained concussion of the brain, which while not likely to prove fatal, will necessitate careful nursing for some time. It is surprising that more such serious accidents are not heard of in curling, as the keen surface which is always found is very slippery and very hard to navigate upon, while the rocks which are so often used as projectiles and in fact of a house makes it very treacherous for players in the time of excitement.

Isn't it funny how peculiar the sporting element of this world really is? Take, for instance, that ladies' hockey match at the auditorium in Winnipeg. Over two thousand hockey fans, and, of course, most of them were men, crowded into the rink and yelled themselves hoarse. But these men did not hand out their two bits thinking that they would be treated to a wonderful exhibition of hockey, as they knew different. But the idea that they were going to have some fun and watch some young ladies on the ice provided the drawing card. Ladies' hockey is somewhat novel to many and so they went to enjoy themselves. But take these same enthusiasts and ask them to pay their good money to see a fast intermediate game, which this year at least has a lot of class to it, one would not think that they would not be driven to the game. The fact that it was only ordinary

DECIDES TO MAKE STUDY OF AUTOING

J. G. VINCENT LEAVES BURROUGHS COMPANY AND WILL JOIN THE COFFIN PEOPLE

That the automobile industry holds out the most attractive allurements to men of a mechanical turn of mind has just been proven again. J. G. Vincent, superintendent of inventions of the Burroughs Machine Company, has left that field in which he has become world-famous, to join the engineering forces of a motor car company.

"I had to surrender to the motor car," explains Mr. Vincent. "There is an overpowering fascination about automobile designing. I became interested in the motor car when Howard E. Collin brought out his first model years ago. I got to know him and together we were working on automobile devices at odd times over since. I have bought a new car every time Mr. Collin designed one."

"I was willing to give up my life study of adding machines to join Mr. Collin because his ideas are always for simplicity and efficiency. My mechanical designing has been done with the same ends in view."

Mr. Vincent is a man of many talents. BUSY BOOSTING FOR BIG MEET

POLICE ATHLETES, CALEDONIANS AND IRISH ASSOCIATION WORKING HARD TO BRING PROVINCIAL ATHLETICS TO EDMONTON FOR COMING SEASON—CITY BOASTS OF CRACK ATHLETES WHO WOULD UPHOLD 40-LOCAL HONORS WITH HIGH CREDIT—SEVERAL ALBERTA CHAMPIONSHIPS HELD BY EDMONTON MEN.

Athletes of the city police force, the Caledonians and the Irish Association, are boosting for a big provincial athletic meet to be held on the exhibition grounds during exhibition week. They point out that the Edmonton fair of 1911 will be on a scale far more pretentious than that of any previous exhibition held in Alberta, and that the occasion provides a gold-colored opportunity for the inauguration of a provincial meet at which athletes from all parts of the Province may foregather to contend for the laurels of the field. If the event is to be the success which it should be, the time to get to work is early in the season, when a few months' boosting may bring the towns and cities of Alberta into line, and serve to arouse the ambitions of athletes throughout the province.

The clubs which are enthusiastically supporting the proposal are themselves among the most distinguished in Alberta for athletic prowess. The boys in blue are athletes almost to a man, and last season they captured between them a large proportion of the honors of the day at the meet during fair week. John Cameron, who holds the championship in putting the 16 lb. shot captured in 1909, and retained against all comers in the contest of the gold pole force athletes. In the pole vault of last year he made second and second in the high jump. Clund and Cameron are for a scheduled track meets.

At the athletic meet of 1911 will have its natural fruition in a manner not to be held during the week of the Dominion fair in 1912, a year which will mark many epoch making events in the Capital City. The Dominion fair is to be held at Exhibition park, if the enthusiasm and method and the expenditure which the exhibition association directors, supported by the city council, are prepared to lavish upon the improvements at the park, are any criterion, will be the busiest event of its kind that Canada has known. With the exhibition grounds in the making that are to be found in the Dominion, the two seasons which lie ahead of the directors will assure an eclipse of any Dominion fair that has gone before.

And one of the most vital features of a successful fair, is the Athletic meet.

QUALITY COSTS

If it takes 20 tons of coal to drive a train 20 miles an hour, each additional mile per hour means a lot more than one ton of coal. You buy similar with quality. A certain standard is easy. Beyond that the cost increases in a geometrical progression. That's why good printing costs money.
